4/5/6 News

This week students will participate in a Student Well-Being Day. We hope that everyone enjoys it and comes away with lots of information.

We are continuing our work on You Are the First Kid on Mars as well as Forces and Simple Machines.

I would like to congratulate all students in the class for helping Sapan to settle into our school. Sapan has come to us from Thailand and although he is able to speak some words of English, he is still learning. Our students should be proud of the way they have included him and are accepting of the differences in culture he comes with.

Next week we will be drawing the AR Targets raffle, so I hope everyone has been and will be working hard this week to achieve their targets!!!

Looking for something to do in the holidays?
The new CWA competitions for juniors (aged up to 18 years) are now open. Barellan Central School students all welcome to try the various sections, either at home or as a school activity. Phone or see Judy Findlay if you need more information; I can pick up your entries at the school office.
Short stories close 4th August 2014,
Photos and posters close 19th August 2014.
Sections are as follows:
B "Boots and shoes."
Use your imagination, maybe your dog loves to steal them from the back step, or your cat hops inside the slippers? Or a pile of shoes at the door during wet weather? Different ideas catch the eye of the judges!!

Short Story. 500 words maximum.
The topic is “In My Town.”
You can tell a story of something that happened here, or describe a specific event, a person who lives here, or perhaps just write about why you like Barellan, or you could compare our town to others nearby, or to big cities. That’s just a few thoughts – yours could be better, and more exciting!!

Posters. Minimum size A3, maximum a full sheet of cardboard.
Topic is “MOST WANTED”.
This poster could be of Ned Kelly, another criminal, maybe yourself, or a poster of an endangered animal, bird or sea creature. The interpretation of this topic, like the others, is up to you. Being a poster, the heading needs to be bold, attracting attention to any other information/picture.

Thanks very much to everyone who competed in this year’s competitions, and to the people who travelled to Griffith to receive their certificates, being winners in the statewide awards!! Congratulations BCS !!!

Judy Findlay, Cultural Officer for Murrumbidgee Lachlan Group.
P.S for all CWA entries, please write your Name and age (i.e. age when you complete the entry) in pencil on the back of the page, photo or poster.
